DAVID CRUICKSHANK HEADMASTER

David Cruickshank was studying English and history at Bishop's University when he visited BCS for the first time. He remembers the atmosphere associated with the School, a warm, family kind of feeling, and this prompted him to think about teaching in a school such as BCS. In 1959 Oggie Glass offered the 21 year-old graduate a job ("We sat in this very room, as a matter of fact!") but he wasn't ready to settle down and went off to teach in England for three years. After David completed a further two years of study resulting in a Master's from Queen's University, Stewart Large offered him a job at BCS. "When I first came here, I thought I'd died and gone to heaven! I coached senior football, coached hockey, did cadets, ran the choir and taught a full load of classes in English and history... all of that in my first year at BCS and I thought it was wonderful, just wonderful."

As a teacher, David has been described by his colleagues as someone who "knows his stuff", "pays attention to detail and builds from a firm base", "sets an example of self-discipline" and "genuinely cares for young people". He demonstrated these characteristics while heading up the Adventure Training Program, which he was responsible for bringing to BCS. "I was very concerned about detail."

I would go over the routes foot by foot, mile by mile, before I took any kids to the mountains. I would check out equipment until I was blue in the face. I've never thought of myself as a very organized person, but I guess I am - I also believe in doing my homework."

When he was appointed Headmaster, David remembers feeling elated but he quickly came to realize the magnitude of the job that awaited him. "I didn't weigh all the pros and cons of taking the job. There were monumental problems facing the School in 1982, but these problems meant challenge. I just said: 'OK. Let's do it!'"

His colleagues describe his abilities as Headmaster in several ways: "He is very good at delegating jobs and authority, and letting people get on with their work without interference." "He demonstrates commitment and leadership and he gets things done!" "He faced the necessary 'distancing' between himself and his former peers rather graciously". "He is approachable, flexible and fair, but also more formidable, though he doesn't quite know this yet!" "He is tenacious where fundamental principles of decency are concerned."

David's six years as Headmaster of BCS do not appear to have taken their toll. He looks back over those years and says: "I take my job very seriously because it's a serious commitment. I have had to make some very very difficult decisions. I don't thump desks to get things done, but I do get things done! Delegating has been one of the hardest things to do here. It took two or three years before people believed I really meant to share the responsibility. One of the great tricks is to delegate and still be aware of the details. If things don't go right, you say, 'Look, maybe we'd better talk about this.' I've learned that, and that's been largely a result of the encouragement from my colleagues and friends."

David believes the headmaster's most important role is "to develop a strong team of staff members, who have their independence but who are still responsible to me, to the students, and to each other." David considers BCS' greatest strength to be its people. He is very proud of his teaching staff who, he says, are "outstanding at what they do. They know the School; they love the School; they are committed to it. Dedication - the public school system just can't offer the same kind of dedication and that's what makes the difference! That's what makes BCS special."

During the past six years BCS has seen many changes. The turnaround in the fortunes of the School attest to the Headmaster's capability and his dedication. Throughout, he has had a strong partner by his side. Jean (Millward) Cruickshank shares David's devotion to

BCS. She is the daughter of a King's Hall Old Girl (Alex Newton Millward KHC '29), an Old Girl herself (KHC '55), and the mother of four BCS grads! Though she works four days a week in occupational therapy with patients in the psychiatric ward of the Sherbrooke Hospital, she finds time to entertain staff members, students and parents, to take part in the Chaplain's community service activities, and to generally be involved at BCS as much as she possibly can.

BCS has a very supportive Board of Directors and a Chairman whose "second home", Plantation, is the Headmaster's house! When asked what he expects from the Chairman, Shirley Stoker, David says: "I expect guidance, but I don't expect her to tell me what to do. I expect Shirley to make sure that the members of the Board are aware of what's happening in the School - that they're on side. I expect her to keep her finger on the pulse of what people are saying. She's a trouble-shooter, supporter, the key person. The Board members also should know the school and what's going on here. BCS should be the centre of the Board's consciousness. It's a very hard thing to do but under Shirley's chairmanship we've come a long way."

The problem of discipline is always a concern at a boarding school. Many older alumni returning to the School note rather enviously that students seem to be having more fun today than in the old days of caning. David says: "You don't teach through fear - that's not discipline. Discipline is something you set by example, first of all. The rules apply to me more than they do to anybody else at the School. You then make your expectations very very clear. You make it clear that people who don't meet, or who don't try to meet, those expectations are dealt with in a no-nonsense kind of way. I don't expect the students to be perfect but I want them to be the best they can be."

I believe in setting realistic standards and in emphasizing the three C's - common sense, consideration and courtesy. Our system at BCS is based on trust, not fear. Students who violate that trust don't beat the system, but they do lose something that is very special and which, once lost, is difficult to regain. That's what discipline is all about. You don't get discipline by beating people; you get it by making your expectations clear and by being consistent."

The Headmaster's job is seven days a week, twenty-four hours a day. When asked how he gets away from it all, David says: "The purpose of the retreats that my Jesuit teachers used to have, and that the Church still has, is to get away from it all physically. Things can then take on their proper perspective. It's very easy to lose perspective here. You can become obsessed by the negatives - it's human nature. You can be dragged down, and forget all the good that is going on at the same time. And so I work on my farm, clearing fields, chopping wood, marking boundary lines, clearing brush, etc. but I'm still thinking. I don't believe I'm ever not thinking about School. A whole lot of people here are like that, and we all find our own ways to distance ourselves. I can also 'get away from it' by listening to music and reading."

What David likes most about his job is the people - the students and the staff. "I enjoy the chance to maybe make a difference to somebody - either a staff member or a kid." To the Headmaster the greatest disadvantage of the job is the total lack of privacy. "You're always the headmaster, no matter where you go. To paraphrase Shakespeare 'The good that a man does dies with him; the evil lives long after'. You can't do a lot of things other people can do. As I tell the students, I could be the best Headmaster there ever was in this School; I could finish my time here with $100,000,000 in the bank, wonderful new buildings, enrolment stretching on to a waiting list for the next 25 years - just great, but if I walk in here one day, and fall down, giggling drunk in Centre Hall I would be remembered as that drunken Cruickshank! So you can never ever let down. You can't expect self-discipline from other people if you don't practice it yourself."

A priority for David is to keep in touch with the student body. He teaches all the third form, and he teaches fifth and sixth forms English. He goes to as many School functions as he possibly can and he's around the School as much as possible. "I have to know everyone's name and something about them - everyone in the School - by Christmas time because I have to write those reports - and you can't fake it, because THEY KNOW!"

After November break, we start the 'send ups' again - about five years ago I started having dinner with a few of the new students, three or four at a time, a different group each week, at the head table. They hate it but it does give me a chance to put names to faces and to find out how things are going."

On making tough decisions, David says: "I don't make them by myself because the decisions invariably and inevitably involve the kid or kids. I meet with the staff members and house parents involved, and get as much information as I can and usually recommendations about what they feel should be done. Then I usually take 24 hours to think about it. I often go for a walk and talk to myself before we get together again, and at the end of all that I usually have a pretty good sense of what's fair, which is very important, and then I do it. And that's that. Once it's done, it's done."

David is aware that BCS will continue to face challenges in the future. "Enrolment will be a constant and continuing battle because there is so much competition in the big cities. We must be outstanding, different, better, in order to expect people to pay twice the day school fees for a boarding school, and that's going to be a challenge. We're going to have to keep fighting. We can't become contented, like Carnation Cows. The day I start thinking 'we've arrived', is when I'll step aside. . . . Facilities! If we don't get the facilities we need, then we're up a creek. These days parents more and more are comparison shopping and they make no bones about it. The physical plant isn't everything, but it's what people see. We should have it because we need it but we also must place ourselves competitively into the same league as other great schools in a physical way. Right now our kids feel they are in a top-flight school, and they are. It's the people who make the school and the people who are most important, but if the people can't fulfil their talents because they don't have the facilities, then morale goes down and they leave. Somehow we have to make BCS the number one philanthropy for a whole lot of people. And how to do this is in far more capable hands than mine. But I sure hope they can do it! We're not just a nice little school in the country; this place is a power house, and that's the way it's got to stay!!!"

When asked how he would like to be remembered when his years as Headmaster at BCS are behind him, David replied: "Remembered? I don't really expect to be remembered! You don't do what you're doing because you want to be remembered. You do what you're doing because you want the place to be better than it was when you found it."

And so the David Cruickshank story is one of leadership. In David's words: "Leadership means service - and you lead by being the number one servant. That's what I tell the students. Through service to the School, you emerge as leaders. Those of you who serve best will be the best leaders." The Headmaster's philosophy is shared by all of the staff members who form such a vital part of the remarkable BCS family.

The prefects are backed up by a team of monitors and house captains.

CHAIRMAN NAMED HONORARY CADET

Following last spring's Cadet Inspection, Chairman Shirley Stoker was named an Honorary Member of the Bishop's College School No. 2 Cadet Corps. Congratulating her on the occasion is Andrew MacLachlan, Cadet Major.

OLD BOY GIVES SCHOOL GRAND PIANO

Last spring Deane Nesbitt ('58) gave his old School a Yamaha six-foot grand piano. Deane is a pianist of note whose recording "On the Black Keys and By Ear" was sold to benefit the Montreal Association for the Blind. He stipulated that the piano was intended for the pleasure of all BCS students whether or not they were in the music program and a plaque to that effect is on the piano. According to the Head of the Music Department Dorothy Hewson, the piano is very much in demand!

BILINGUAL PROGRAM UPDATE

Ms. Claire Mian spent two full days this fall at BCS. She stayed with the Cruickshanks at Plantation and, besides attending classes, she interviewed and had discussions with faculty members.

She emerged very positive about the level of bilingualism which exists at the School and with the competence and enthusiasm of the staff members in the French Department. She is presently preparing her recommendations on steps to be taken next.

MILLE CAITEUX FUND REACHES $12,137.00

189 King's Hall Old Girls and seven former staff members have contributed to the special fund which has been established in memory of Odette Caiteux. Tributes to her have poured in - both in the form of generous cheques and in warm expressions of affection.

The original goal of the fund was to raise $10,000. and, in fact, $12,137. has been received. The purpose of the fund was to purchase audio-visual material for the French Department at BCS. Mrs. St. Jacques gave careful thought to the needs and goals of her Department and, as a result, the following resource items were purchased: a portable audio system, a television, a VCR, five overhead projectors, five screens, a computer printer, memory expansion of the Apple Computer and 273 books. A plaque in Mam'selle's honour will be mounted in the French Department. On behalf of the King's Hall Old Girls who originated this fund, merci énormément pour tous ce que vous avez fait!

The French Department is most grateful for the generous contributions to the Mlle Caiteux Memorial Fund. Le matériel audio-visuel que nous avons pu obtenir grâce à l'argent amassé nous est d'une très grande aide. Nous vous en sommes grandement reconnaissants. Un grand merci à toutes pour votre très grande générosité.

Louise Dumas St.Jacques
 French Department Head

BANG FOR OUR BUCK!

Matthew Charlton, who is in Form V, won the National Under-18 Small Bore Rifle Championship this summer. In order to help Matthew continue his target shooting, the Alumni Association voted to give him $1,000.

A LANGUAGE FOR LIFE

Our illustration shows the hapless student overwhelmed by the linguistic demands of a curriculum which seems to consist of all kinds of unrelated languages. Thanks to recent developments at BCS we hope that this scene can now be stored away in the archives. As teachers we are realising more and more that we all share one essential attribute: we all use language with which to teach and all our teaching is ultimately directed to one end - to enable our students to master the language with which to live.

... Pretty high-sounding stuff! What does this mean in practical terms? It means that, with the support and encouragement of the Headmaster, the Academic Council (which consists of all the Department Heads and the academic advisory staff) has undertaken to make "Language Across the Curriculum" a central focus of the academic programme and to encourage all departments to give it the prominence it deserves.

Enough of the educational jargon! What's going on in the classrooms and corridors to make this a reality? In the classrooms of every discipline the skills of reading, writing, listening and talking are receiving consistent and constant attention and this emphasis on language ability spills over into so many of the other activities of the School. When there's writing it's often for real audiences. The corridors are plastered with students' letters to famous authors and their replies. "Bish Biz", our weekly column in the local paper, "Inscape", our award-winning literary magazine, "BlaBla", the French department's newspaper and "Memo", the recently created student news-sheet, all provide an audience for student writing. Meanwhile the list of literary competitions we enter is growing longer as is the list of winners. Last year in the Scholastic Young Writers' Competition, which encompasses all of North America, there were only five award winners in Canada and two of those were from BCS.

The visiting writers programme means the students get to meet REAL writers, some of whom actually make money by their pens! Workshops and readings are held and our students visit Montreal and other schools. In the last few years we have heard Earle Birney, Constance Beresford-Howe, Henry Beissel, Ronald Sutherland, Michael Harris, and many others.

The library plays a large part in all this. It is becoming increasingly well stocked in all subject areas and two Book Fairs each year leave the whole School looking as if it is hosting a convention of adolescent bookworms. In every subject more time is being devoted to reading and not just books, but journals, magazines and newspapers are becoming required reading in many courses.

One of the results of this new awareness of the importance of language is that the teachers as well as the students are benefitting from these new approaches. No longer is the English Department the only department that "cares" about language; no longer is the English Department the only department that encourages frequent, varied and creative writing; no longer are we all working in isolation. There is a new spirit of cooperation abroad, as evidenced by the close cooperation between the English and Social Sciences Departments in formulating a common approach to reading and writing. Our resolve to work on "Language Across the Curriculum" has made us realise that we are "all in this together".

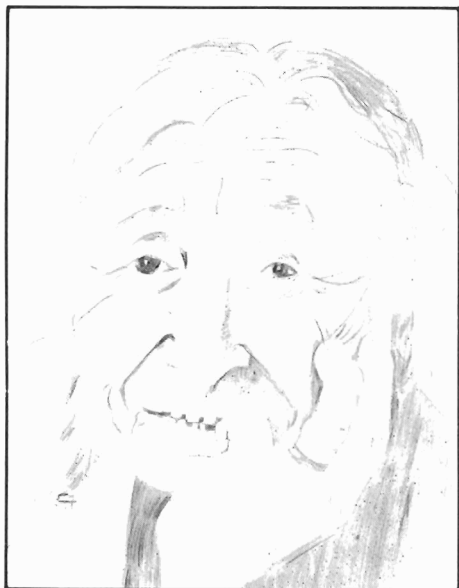

Think a minute about our extracurricular activities: the E.S.L. programme, debating and public speaking, reading in Chapel, The Thinkers' Club, the Enrichment Programme, The Players' Club and its new departure into French theatre, the Arts Society and the Yearbook are all, at heart, linguistic experiences. When they are set beside all the classroom experiences in reading, writing, discussion and questioning, then we can see that our student in the picture is receiving plenty of help to sort out, understand and use the languages by which she is surrounded.

THE BCS CHALLENGE UPDATE

The portrait of a Black Lake Chipewyan Woman was sketched this summer by Dorte von Stunzer from Salem Schoon, West Germany. Dorte is presently an exchange student at BCS.

Community Service - This past summer six students and six staff members from Round Square associated schools joined forces to provide summer recreation for up to 150 children of the Black Lake Band in subarctic Saskatchewan. Both the two-week camp, and the canoe trip on the Porcupine River which followed were greatly successful ventures.

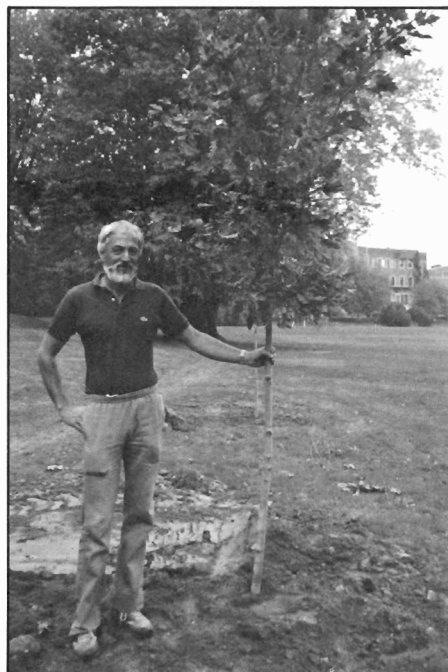

OLD BOY PLANTS TREES AT BCS

This fall Bill Pollock ('58) visited the School to plant a variety of maple and spruce trees on the campus as his gift to BCS to commemorate the 150th Anniversary. Bill not only selected the trees and brought them on his company's truck, but he operated the crane which unloaded them and helped the Grounds Crew with the planting. Bill is sole owner of Timerlinn Ltd., Forest Engineers, of St. Agathe. The company specializes in private woodland management and Bill's consulting assignments take him all over Quebec and into Ontario and Nova Scotia.

International Exchanges - This school year six BCS students are studying abroad at exchanges in Scotland, England, France and Germany. And 3 students from Germany and England are presently at BCS. We'll be joined by additional students from Scotland, England and West Germany in January.

International Projects - BCS staff member and KHC old girl Shirley (Allan) Brown '65 and her husband Robert served on the India Project at Gwator and Ariana Bradford was at Jagitnagar during Christmas 86/87. Leslie Major and Sophie Cofman have been accepted on the India Project for Christmas 87/88.

Award - "The Prince Alexander Fund" Award. The BCS Community raised over $4,000 for Round Square International Service - largely through the "Poverty Meal", run by Geraldine McGurk and the student committee last year - the largest contribution by any R.S. school. At October's Marvelwood Conference, Prince Alexander of Schleswig Holstein named BCS the winner of his altruistic competition. (N.B. All of these funds go directly to helping children in India through construction of school buildings, wells and playgrounds by RSIS volunteer students like Ariana, Leslie and Sophie.)

BCS TEACHER IN INDIA

Shirley Brown, who is Head of the English as a Second Language Program and Associate Director of Admissions, spent a stimulating and challenging seven months in India as part of a teaching exchange at the Lawrence School, Sanawar. During that time Mrs. Manjari Khan, staff member at Lawrence, taught at BCS.

The Lawrence School in the Himalayas was founded 150 years ago as a school for the sons of British army officers and, though its curriculum is modeled on the British system, traditional Indian music and dancing are taught to the co-ed student body.

STUDENT ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

Kim Laliberte, Coordinator of Alumni Relations, has started a Student Alumni Association. The activity has been offered for the first time this fall as a Cadet Activity. As a result student volunteers are involved in a number of ways in the Development Office. 27 students helped to decorate the rink for Thanksgiving. Others are attempting to locate missing alumni, helping with the mailing of the Bulletin, and participating in various alumni activities. Kim, who realizes that "all work and no play" is no fun, provides "treats" for the students from time to time.

GILLARD LECTURES & DEBATES COMMITTEE

The Alumni Association has formed a committee of Old Girls to research and arrange for top-rated speakers to present the annual Gillard Lectures & Debates. The Committee is composed of the following: Patsy Thomson, (71), Chairman, Kim Laliberte, Secretary, Alice (Ross) Aird ('45), Willa (Ogilvie) Creighton ('50), Sally (Sharwood) Drummond ('51), Mary (Molson) Iversen ('42), Joan (MacKay) Mackenzie ('49), Susan Marpole ('63), Joan (Robb) Pater-son ('50) and Sue (Teakle) Whit-tall ('51).

FORM TUTORS NAMED

In an effort to afford more prominence to the Form concept as a viable social and academic unit within the School, the following have been appointed Form Tutors:

Form II - Eric Detchon
Form III - Jim Slocombe
Form IV - Michel Cameron
Form V - Peter Brass
Form VI - Trish & Charles Peacock

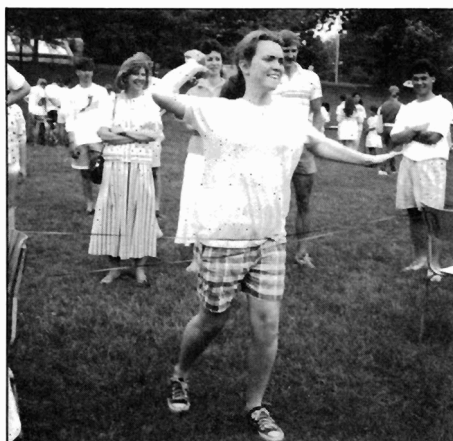

Form VII - Ron Romanado

Jim Slocombe has been appointed the School's first Senior Tutor. These Form Tutors will be working in close conjunction with Teachers, Houseparents and the Academic Dean and will provide yet another Faculty backup / contact / support system for the students.

BCS SPRING FAIR

Margaret Simms took advantage of the opportunity to toss water-filled sponges at her teachers, Denis Bedard and Ron Romanado, and fellow student, Eric Bishop, during the BCS Community Spring Fair on May 30th. Thirteen organizations from the Lennoxville area shared in the 23-event Fair, which raised over $750 for the Lennoxville Youth Centre.

COMPTON OLD GIRL TO GIVE GILLARD LECTURE

Landon (MacKenzie) Pearson ('47) will deliver this year's Gillard Lecture at BCS on Thursday, November 26th. She will speak on a subject dear to her heart - the political upbringing of Soviet children and the formation of their attitudes to both war and peace. Her topic forms the last chapter of her book "Growing Up Soviet", which will be published in the autumn of 1988. Landon is President of the Canadian Council on Children and Youth.

* to Roy MacLaren and Caroline Mitchell who won two out of a total of eight prizes awarded in the Q.A.I.S. (Quebec Association of Independent Schools) Essay Contest.

* to Gretchen Fitzgerald and Penny Goodwin who won national honours in the 1987 Scholastic Scope Writing Awards - the largest high school writing contest in North America. Only five of the winners were from Canadian schools.

* and to Betsey Coleman who was short listed in the Scope Contest with two winners coming from her English class.

to Fraser Bertram who won a gold medal (for 3000 m) and a bronze medal (for 1500 m) in the Provincial Track & Field Meet last spring.

* to Matthew Charlton who won the National under-18 Small Bore Rifle Championship this summer. Does anyone know the last time we had a national champion in the School?

THEIR GRANDCHILDREN IN '87

In 1936 Mimi Moncel and Betty Cumming were room mates and best friends. The above photos were taken one of the other following one of their many excursions up "Windy". Mimi married F. Ronald Graham and their daughters, Susan and Margot, went to Compton and sons, Ronald, Robert, Tony and Ian, attended BCS. This fall Susan (Graham) Wild's daughter Lucy came to BCS. Betty (who died two years ago, and is still greatly missed by her old friend) married Arthur Price and their grandson Philip also enrolled this fall at BCS. Delighted about the coincidence, Susan brought the grandmothers' photos with her when she accompanied her daughter to BCS.

GRADUATING CLASS RESTORES PANELS

As their gift to BCS, the graduating students in Forms VI and VII paid to have the wooden panels in the hallway of the second floor of School House restored. These panels had been painted white but are now beautifully refinished with a plaque commemorating the gift.

IT'S FULL STEAM AHEAD IN THE DEVELOPMENT OFFICE!

ANNUAL GIVING

The results of last year's annual giving, while extremely heart-warming, must be improved upon if BCS is to maintain its place among the leading educational institutions in Canada today. I know you all have many demands on you, but please make BCS a priority for your support.

REUNIONS

If you take a moment to look at the list of upcoming reunions, you will see how BCS is reaching out to its family across Canada - from Vancouver to St. John's. Kim Laliberte, who works tirelessly as our Coordinator of Alumni Affairs, enthusiastically welcomes any suggestion for a class reunion and almost single-handedly gets the show on the road. While the number of Old Boys and Old Girls who returned for Thanksgiving Weekend was large, very few of them chose to remain for the Saturday evening festivities. As a result, the purpose of Thanksgiving Weekend will be reassessed with the emphasis placed on providing a reception which all alumni will choose to attend. We'd appreciate hearing from any of you who have suggestions.

OPERATIONS

The Foundation's financial operations have now been transferred from the School's Financial Department into the capable hands of Maggie George in the Development Office. Maggie has adapted a computerized system to departmental needs in order to maintain up-to-date records and to produce financial reports on demand for all Endowment Funds, fund-raising projects, reunions and all other activities and special events carried out by the Alumni Association and the Foundation.

THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

The Alumni Association has branched out! A special welcome to the new Directors from the Toronto Chapter. We also welcome Danny Lalonde '72 back to the Board of the Alumni Association. He recently completed his MBA in Geneva, Switzerland, and has returned to Montreal to work for Loewen, Ondaatje, McCutcheon. Danny has undertaken a task of enormous proportions - that of attempting to reconstruct the Class Captains and Decade Rep rosters. In the coming months he will be calling many of you to help him in his pursuit. He's an enthusiastic Old Boy, who has demonstrated his loyalty to BCS ever since he left the School. Please give him your support. And remember, being Class Captain doesn't mean you are expected to get on the phone once a year and hit the old buddies up for a few bucks. What we need is a personal communications network to keep our people informed and up-to-date on happenings and issues at the School.

ALUMNI ADDRESS LIST

The Development Office continues to place great emphasis on locating missing alumni. During the past year over 200 new addresses have been "found". Presently two members of our newly formed Student Alumni Association (SAA), with the flair of Sherlock Holmes, spend time each week trying to track down the "missing". You will read about the recently published Alumni Directory. Once again, we need your help. If you know of an OB/OG who is not receiving The BCS Bulletin or who is not listed in the Directory, please let us know. And do keep us posted when you change your address!

FUND RAISING EVENT

On Thursday, February 4th the Alumni Association is holding a

Monte Carlo Casino at the Ritz-Carlton Hotel. Diana Colby and her committee are planning a very special evening. Please note the announcement in the Bulletin for details.

PLANNING FOR FUND RAISING

The key to successful fund-raising is planning. At BCS planning for the future has been going on for almost two years and is and will continue to take up almost all of my time. The Plans & Resources Committee, chaired by Mike Skutezky '66, presented its findings to a meeting of the Board of Directors. The result was the establishment of two committees. Peter White ('56) is Chairman of the Steering Committee which has been holding weekly meetings throughout the summer and fall, seeking input from Alumni and Staff members, in order to consider all aspects of the School's needs and to develop fund-raising goals. The Plans and Resources Committee, chaired by Mike Huband ('56), is currently establishing an order of priority and cost estimates for all the "bricks and mortar" items being considered by the Board of Directors, as well as for the longer term endowment and development activities to be undertaken. As Director of Development, I attend all committee meetings and act as Secretary. Ongoing research, study and assessment will continue until our priorities are established and our goals, finalized.

We very much hope that each of you - alumni, parents and friends - will respond when asked to take a key role in our fund-raising activities. The next few years promise to be a very exciting time for our School. Don't miss the opportunity to share that excitement!

$25,000 PLEDGED DURING PHONATHON '87

Thanks to early preparation by John Pratt and Kim Laliberte, and to the wonderful turnout of Old Girls and Old Boys, last Spring's Phonathon was a great success! David Stenason had made arrangements for us to use the phones at Levesque Beaubien and Rae Heenan organized a light supper to be served before the calling began.

During the two evenings of May 5th and 6th a total of 42 alumni made 357 calls!

Prizes were awarded to those who made the most calls and to those who raised the most money. Winners were: Ian Craig '63, Willa (Ogilvy) Creighton '50, Judy (Westwater) Heathcote '61, Stuart Mactavish '75, Sue Marpole '63, John Pratt '54, Susan (White) Von Esch '63 and David Stenason '75. Other callers included: Lynn Kouri '82, Mike Laframboise '80, Danny Lalonde '72, Doug Mitchell '79, Tina Pinck '78, Tim Price '75, Paul Reaper '50, Linda Rodeck '81, Paul Setlakwe '70, Daphne Symeonides '79, Jane (Cushing) Brazeau '57, Ann Bieler '57, Di (Daniels) Chapman '55, Wendy (Leggat) Charlebois '65, Diana (Bryant) Colby '65, John Collyer '59, Ray Courey '48, Jill Drummond '81, Kim Finley '77, John Fuller '44, Ian Goodwin '78, John Cowans '54, John Hallward '79, Doug Harpur '66, Andy Hugessen '43, Mary 9Molson) Iversen '42 and Heather (McLaren) Johnston '58.

The two evenings found the callers just short of their $25,000 objective but the next day an Old Boy called to ask how much was needed to meet the target and immediately handed over a generous donation to put Phonathon '87 on target! Thanks to all those who worked so tirelessly and cheerfully and also to those behind the scenes, Alice (Ross) Aird '45, Rae (MacCulloch) Heenan '55 and Margot (Grant) Kyle '65, who were so kind to the visitors (Maggie, Kim and Brad) from Lennoxville.

ALUMNI ACTIVITIES

NEW TORONTO CHAPTER OF ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

At a meeting of the Alumni Association earlier this year, it was suggested that the large number of Old Girls and Old Boys in the Toronto area could support a Toronto Chapter of the Association.

Spurred on by Director Doug Harpur, who travels on a regular basis to Toronto, the Toronto Chapter was formed and held its first meeting in May with subsequent meetings arranged to coincide and telephone-link with Association meetings in Montreal. In July a letter was sent by Board President David Jones to all alumni in the Toronto region, informing them of the new Chapter and asking for suggestions and ideas for future events.

You will read of their first function, the Toronto reunion on September 24. Plans are underway for a spring activity . . . stayed tuned, Toronto!

PHONATHON '88 REACH OUT & FIND SOMEONE

Phonathon '88, which will be held on the evenings of March 7th and 8th, will not be a fund-raiser. Instead its goal will be to locate missing alumni. Anyone wishing to participate will have the opportunity of speaking to former classmates, as BCS and KHC detectives take to the telephone lines!

NEW MEMBERS OF THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION BOARD

The following have been appointed new members of the BCS Alumni Association Board of Directors:

Richard "Crick" Glass '72
Graham Hallward '74
Margot (Graham) Heyerhoff '69
Rick Howson '67
Danny Lalonde '72
Tina Pinck '79

The warmth of the greetings and hugs with which Old Boys and Old Girls met each other, staff members and present students on Thanksgiving Weekend more than made up for winter chill and grey skies. Many recent grads returned to BCS to confront the School teams in field hockey, soccer and football.

While the ten o'clock start might have been a little early for some of the Old Girls, their field hockey game was spirited and, with the help of the goaler from the present School team, they managed a narrow win. Many girls went right on to play soccer as well, and a full team of alumnae fought to victory over the School. Towards the final minutes of the game, Bridget (Perry-Gore) O'Reilly, who had been playing her heart out on both the field hockey and soccer fields, was badly injured in a freak collision. She suffered a broken leg and will spend the next three months in a cast. Everyone who watched Bridget's plucky playing and all her friends join in wishing her a full recovery. The heart went out of all present and no team photo was taken.

The Old Boys were also in excellent form. On the soccer field a team of very fit Old Boys outplayed the School. In the afternoon such a large contingent of football players took to the field that some played for the School team. Under perennial quarterback Timmy Bradley, the Old Boys managed a rather convincing win.

Hoping to provide a meeting place for all the alumni who returned for the day, plus parents, present students and staff members, the Development Office staff, led by Kim Laliberte and assisted by numerous students, went to great effort to convert the rink into a purple-and-white festooned Octoberfest reception area, complete with Oom Pah Pah band and Bavarian dinner. The event was poorly attended. Many football players returned to Montreal. Others attended various functions in the local area. Students chose to go out for dinner with their parents. Staff members supported the activities and their youngsters delighted everyone present with their uninhibited enjoyment of the band's music. Those alumni who did attend ate heartily of the excellent German fare and genuinely enjoyed themselves.

The Sunday Chapel Service, led by the Rev. Patricia Peacock and assisted by "Bishop Tim" Matthews, was once again the highlight of the weekend. Every seat was taken and hymns were sung with fervour and joy. With great beauty and sensitivity, the choir, in rehearsal for only a few weeks, performed Organist and Choir-master Geoffrey Thompson's original work, an anthem of thanksgiving written as a memorial to his father.

However, as a result of the disappointing attendance on Saturday evening, the Development Office, the Alumni Association and staff members are now reassessing the function of Thanksgiving Weekend. It is to be hoped that all returning Old Girls and Old Boys will feel welcome to remain at School after the football game is over. We know that cost is a factor - especially for the younger alumni who are university students. In the future, efforts will be made to provide a low-cost occasion with dinner and cash bar, staff members present, perhaps a showing of the most recent multi-screen slide show of the past year's activities and some other form of entertainment. We know that younger alumni make up the largest group who return each year. However, it is our sincere hope that all ages of Old Girls and Old Boys will feel the weekend is theirs, to return to their old School, meet old friends and enjoy the beauty of autumn colours in the glorious Eastern Townships. Please let us know what you think. As an Old Boy/Old Girl, this is your weekend and we want you to enjoy it.

COACH'S COMMENTS: Pleasant spring weather . . . the pitch in unusually good shape so early in the year . . . Stankaitis a hefty figure after his Australian visit . . . Stearns, Scheib and Johnson looking very fast and dangerous with the University rugby training behind them . . . Setlakwe, Johnston and Price frightening authority and pace for such veteran Old Boy players . . . Leblond continuing with his devastating defensive tackling . . . nice try for Hugget . . . tries for Badger and Scalabrini . . . Scalabrini pulled off a sensational tackle on Andy MacLachlan when nobody else wanted to know . . . final score 14 to 8 for O.B. . . . The Old Boys really know now how to take this game; they share it with the smaller School side, rather than bashing 'em up . . . GOOD SPIRIT!

FOUNDER'S DAY CRICKET

There was no breathless hush at the close today, only the earth-shaking lurches across the lower campus as the Old Boys XI played the School after a lapse of fifteen years. Thor and Odin were so provoked at this exhibition that they eventually scattered us with thunder and lightning after the School was all out for 74 and the Old Boys, batting second, retired after four wickets for 37. Instigators for this sporting event, part of the 150th celebrations, were Charles Peacock for the School and Patrick Stoker '38 for the Old Boys. The School assembled its players from the staff, the students and the exchange students. The Old Boys spanned four decades and sported purple-ribboned hats supplied by Patrick.

Glass, Bradley and Price bowled consistently well on the grass pitch. Next year there may be a proper mat on which to play. A good time was had by all. With any luck we may make this an annual event. Thank you, Charles, for finding the equipment, preparing the field and rounding up the officials, as well as putting a team together. For a fleeting instant we all recaptured our youth!

TORONTO ALUMNI HOLD FALL GATHERING

Once again, Toronto alumni came out in strong numbers to attend our annual reunion at the Badminton & Racquet Club on September 24th - the ninth consecutive annual reception. The turnout showed that it continues to be appreciated.

As has become tradition in recent years, there were two special guests of honour "express" from Lennoxville. The presence of Mrs. Lu Brady and Sam Abbott was an added treat for all those who have known them over the years. Alumni cued up to speak and reminisce with them . . . and they both looked fantastic! David Cruickshank gave a comprehensive talk on how the School is doing this year and what its goals and needs are in the years to come.

Graham Hallward '72 acted as Master of Ceremonies for the evening and called out the winners of the raffle prizes: Bruce Walters '57, Wallace Watson '60, Keith Billings '63, Crick Glass '72, Susan Hibbard '79, Mary Conduit '67, Ronald Graham (husband and father of Compton girls and Bishop's boys!) and Bart MacDougall '54. Following the party several groups, eager to continue the fun, went on to dinner at nearby restaurants.

This year Toronto has an active group of Alumni Board Directors to represent and assist the ever-growing alumni in the vicinity. This Toronto Chapter hopes to plan other events during the year for all those interested in maintaining close ties with the School and each other. You will hear more in the near future. In the meantime, the 1987 Toronto Gathering was a grand beginning.

They came from far and near; some with husbands; some with babies. Most of us hadn't changed a bit; some were married with children; others have decided to stay single. We laughed, we cried, we remembered the good times as well as the bad times at School. We looked at pictures both old and new, and talked into the wee hours both Friday and Saturday nights. We treated each other like queens every time there was a meal . . . gourmet delights abounded!

On Saturday, dressed in our finery, we went to BCS to have lunch with Miss Gillard at Plantation, Headmaster David Cruickshank's house on campus. The food was delicious and nostalgia was very much in evidence. Gilly, of course, was the centre of attention and she amazed us all with her recall of our names and escapades at School. Later that day some of us went back to see KHC which is now called "Domaine St. Laurent". I enjoyed my visit there - the new owners have really captured the essence of the place.

All in all, this weekend was great! On behalf of myself and all concerned, thank you very much, Betsy Johnston. See you all in five years time. Okay?

Mary Conduit

ARCHIVES UPDATE

Since last spring the following have contributed items to the Archives:

Bill Mitchell ('26) donated two silver cups which he won for track (880 and the mile) in 1926. The cups are being used in St. Martin's Chapel.

Olga Audet, mother of David ('54), permitted the Archives to copy seven rare photos of "Elmwood", built for the Rev. Lucius Doolittle, founder of BCS, around 1835. Sherbrooke photographer Gerry Lemay took these photos between 1949-53 when the Audet family lived there.

Margaret Anne (Forbes) Fuller ('45) donated 40 issues of the King's Hall Magazine and other KHC memorabilia.

Harold W. Worcester of Lennoxville allowed the Archives to copy a photo of the old Prep. School before the fire of 1915.

Hugh Blair ('38), John Shuter ('42), Graham Patriquin, Jeff Wilson and Sam Abbott each contributed documents and photographs connected with the history of the School.

150th ANNIVERSARY REUNION IN OTTAWA

There is a BCS community alive and well and living in the Ottawa area. Evidence?

On April 29th, spurred on by the 150th Anniversary and the positive suggestion of animateur Brad Mitchell, over eighty members of the community - old girls, old boys, spouses, past and present staff members, parents, potential parents and friends - gathered over drinks and superb edibles at the venerable Royal Ottawa Golf Club.

The evening brought together a great span of interests, years and experience of BCS/KHC life - from David Drury '28, sporting his sombre purple velvet Athletic Distinction Cap, to Marjorie MacKeen '48 and Cynthia (Molson) Baxter '52 and on to the more recent grads such as Sandra Candow '80, Iain Duncan '80 and Steve Bunge, '86. Guests of honour included David and Jean Cruickshank, Major Sam Abbott, just back from a cross-continent tour, Lewis Evans, Sr., supported by numerous family members, and my father, Graham, making his first public appearance after a major operation during the winter. They all remarked on the exceptionally warm and friendly feeling in the room and enjoyed seeing many familiar faces, who do not make it across the St. Lawrence and into the Eastern Townships as often as Montrealers.

The Headmaster's enthusiastic remarks and the depiction of today's BCS in the stunning multimedia slideshow, presented by Steve Macknish and assisted by Lisa Setlakwe and Margaret Simms, brought us up to date on the activities and plans of a vibrant School that is alive to the needs of the present.

Special thanks to Matt Kenny '79 for acting as a very able M.C. and to Jimmy Williams '53, Steve Cushing '61, Grant Johnston '58, Francois de Sainte Marie '65, parents Jim and Muriel Bradford, and Alumni Coordinator Kim Laliberte for organizing the reunion.

Another event is planned for April 28, 1988 to encourage the spirit that was apparent last spring. See you all there!

FROM THE PEN OF AN OLD BOY . . .

Ted "Shep" Shepherd and Brad Mitchell at Cadet Inspection.

Old Boy Ted Shepherd, who was Commanding Officer of the Cadet Corps in 1943, returned to BCS for last spring's Cadet Inspection. In connection with the 1937 centrefold photo of the entire School which appeared in the last Bulletin, his subsequent letter to Brad Mitchell pointed out "the omission of my dear Peruvian friend, Francis William Mokill, in the front row. "Dork", as he was nick-named, was truly "one of the boys" and successfully got into about as much trouble as the rest of us. I believe he is now resident in Miami, Florida."

Here is a further excerpt from his letter: "Please pass along my most sincere congratulations to Andrew MacLachlan the Cadet Corps Major. He did, without a doubt, one of the best jobs I've ever seen an Officer Commanding do. His power of command, stature, dedication and leadership was an inspiration to those who attended. If I'm allowed this privilege I would also suggest he made all Old Boys, living and dead, proud to have served in No. 2 B.C.S. C.C. and see what what good hands the Corps was in during 1986-87. As a former Officer Commanding this historic Corps I expected the male Cadets to do well and they did. I would also like to add that the girl Cadets were no less than spectacular in their marching, heads up, arms full swing and a decided asset to the Parade. Congratulations to no. 2 and no. 3 platoons. The magnificent spirit of the B.C.S. Corps lives on."

On Thursday, May 28th, Montreal area alumni gathered "upstairs" at Winnie's to celebrate the wrap-up of the 150th Anniversary celebrations. Those attending spanned the decades. Among them, representing the 40's, were Godfrey Howard, who came all the way from Lake Winnepesaukee, Peter and Alice (Ross) Aird, Tom Patton and John Fuller. Tim Porteous, Robin Berlyn, Garth Boyd, John Cameron and Paul Reaper of the 50's were joined by David Jones, Diana (Bryant) Colby and Sue Marpole of the 60's. The 70's were out in force and included newly engaged Karma Price and John Hallward, Michael Wade and Michel Clermont. Brian Bell, Kate Riddell and "Raz" Laframboise were among those who showed the flag for the 80's.

FROM THE EDITOR . . .

A special thanks to Geoffrey Thomson who, besides being Organist and Choir Master, is an excellent proof-reader. And to Lawrie Sakamoto, Director of Finance and self-styled computer buff, who decided the time had come to start producing this Bulletin on our laser printer. Almost all of the text, including the six pages of Class News will be sent to the printers "camera ready" saving over $1,000. It may not have the polished look we would like, but we're learning . . .

DEATHS

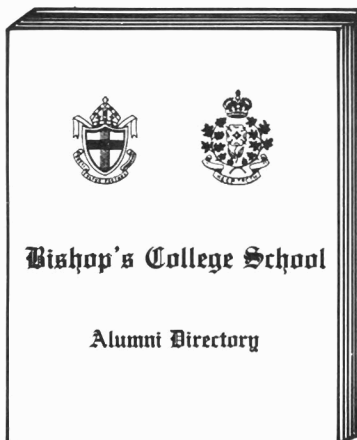

BCS '39 Lewis C. Kibbee on April 25th after a ten-year-long battle with cancer. Jeanne Kibbee wrote: "The April Bulletin arrived in time for Lew to see himself in the center picture. It pleased him a great deal. BCS was always very dear to him."

BCS '43 Ross Preston in July at age 62.

BCS '55 Michael Pick on July 10th in Montreal after a courageous battle with cancer. A memorial service was held at St. Martin's Chapel, Bishop's College School.

Betty Allison, BCS Librarian 68-74, on March 18th at home in Victoria, B.C.

Old Girls and Old Boys — please note:

The first BCS Alumni Directory is hot off the presses. Its production was a student initiated project, assisted by Kim Laliberte, Coordinator of Alumni Relations and Andrew Sakamoto '81. This book contains the name, address and telephone number for each Old Girl and Old Boy and class lists. To order please send a cheque for $10.00 (payable to The BCS Foundation) to Kim Laliberte, Development Office, Bishop's College School, Lennoxville, Quebec, J1M 1Z8.

NEWEST OLD BOY

"Bishop Tim" Matthews was named an honorary Old Boy at the Founder's Day Chapel Service on May 31st. Following a period as BCS Chaplain, Tim has been Chaplain Emeritus for the past eight years, and has played a very special role in life at the School. A father and grandfather of Old Boys and at one time Chairman of the Board at King's Hall, our newest Old Boy very much deserves this honour.

MONTREAL PIED-À-TERRÉ WANTED

NEWS OF STAFF MEMBERS

PAST & PRESENT

Gilly is now cycling six miles a day on her stationery bike, up from five a year ago! As she approaches 95, Gilly appears to be getting younger!

Alexis Troubetzkoy resigned from Appleby to become Headmaster of The Toronto French School.

Stewart Large has retired as Assistant to the Headmaster at Appleby after 13 years on the staff. He and Ibbby will continue to live in Oakville.

Doug and Donna Campbell returned to BCS on October 21st after attending the Headmasters' Conference in Ottawa. They were anxious to see their friends and to visit the renovated Chapman House. Doug is presently Headmaster of Shawnigan Lake School on Vancouver Island.

Ron Owen travelled to four wedding celebrations this summer - Vermont, Prout's Neck (Chris Cowans'), New Richmond (Debbie Campbell's) and Massawippi (Crick Glass')

Patricia Peacock gave a report on Family Violence to the Anglican Diocesan Synod at Sherbrooke in September. The report was the result of six month's work and looked into four groups - battered women, teen dating violence, abused children and abused elderly people. In closing, she said: "If we find ourselves in a position of helping someone in an abusive situation, we should know where and what help is available and how that person can get help. We should heighten our awareness so that we can see and hear the silent cries for help."

Ann Perrier, Rita Hawketts and Robert Common spent two weeks in Black Lake, Saskatchewan, this summer as part of the Round Square Service Project providing recreation for Chipewyan children.

Betsey and Charles Coleman are the proud parents of Phoebe Yu-Chan who was born in Taiwan on November 13, 1985.

Julia and Robert Common had a son, Rupert, on June 15th, a brother for Sarah.

Carol and Steve Macknish had a daughter, Karina, on September 21st, a sister for Justin.

Ron Romanado has finally backed a winner! At odds of 150 to 1, the Minnesota Twins won the World Series! The Social Sciences Department figures there's hope!

Vince Jansen married Jane Mitchell (BCS '80) on October 3rd.

NEWS OF THE CLASSES

'29 Hope (Richardson) Cook writes: "Retired from National Institutes of Health in Bethesda Md. 1983. Co author on 24 scientific papers. I figure I've worked at scientific endeavors for over 40 years. Moved to Tennessee to be near daughter and my grandchildren. Bored by inactivity so now work in labs at Vanderbilt U., mostly running Radio Immune Assays. Cathy '66 joined us at Christmas. Hope my grandchildren will end up at BCS. Four generations would be such fun."

'29 James Simms visited BCS from Grand Mere in September and brought news of the article on Peter Hanna in Commerce magazine. He didn't see much of the School since the buildings were plunged into darkness by a power failure! He brought a change of address for his sister, Marion (Simms) Babin ('15) who may be KHC's oldest living Old Girl.

'35 Peter McEntyre was awarded an LL.D. at the Concordia Convocation in May. He is Director of the Montreal Neurological Hospital.

'35 Herbert von Colditz visited BCS with his wife on September 21st. He had been on a trip to see his brother Paul ('37) in St. Agathe where he also met John Churchill-Smith ('39). They were continuing on to Maine and Connecticut before returning to California, where Herbert is a Consulting Engineer. He is also the father of Old Boys Eric and Dick ('60).

'36 Madeleine St. Laurent was the subject of an article in the Westmount Examiner in September. She spoke of the highlights of her life and of her father Louis, Canada's 12th Prime Minister. A part-time resident of Delray Beach, Florida, she is contemplating staying put in Montreal and continuing her active involvement as president of the Westmount Place Tenants Association.

'36 Pamela (Merrill) Peck and J. Murray Cook were married on August 29th at the Herb Garden in Sooke, B.C.

'37 Okill Stuart is a member of the national executive of the United Empire Loyalists' Association of Canada. The Association will mark its 75th Anniversary in 1989 and its annual convention will be held at Bishop's University. The BCS Cadet Inspection and a service in St. Martin's Chapel will be part of the program.

'37 Bill Anglin is still flying the mountains and coastal areas of B.C. He recently took Air Canada's first D.C. 3, THE SAME AIRCRAFT HE TESTED 40 YEARS EARLIER, to Mexico with aid for earthquake victims, and returned through L.A. where he attended the official opening of C.P. Air's new facility at which the Canadian Consul General, Joan (Price) Winsor ('43) was cutting the ribbon! Bill had a chance to see his great School pal Frank Winsor ('37) with whom he played on the 1st football team. (While at BCS Bill started and captained the 1st BCS ski team under C.G.M. Grier.)

'38 Mimi (Moncel) Graham returned to BCS for Thanksgiving "en famille". With her was her husband Ronald, her two daughters, Susan ('64) and Margot ('69) and two of her sons, Robert ('67) and Ian ('80).

'38 Hugh F. Blair of Williamstown, Ontario, returned to BCS for the Thanksgiving Chapel Service and brought a variety of photos from his School days in the 30's as a gift to the Archives.

'39 Hart Finley was elected President of the Ontario Provincial Council of the Boy Scouts of Canada at the 76th Provincial Annual Meeting in April 1987. Besides his life long scouting affiliations, Hart was a fighter pilot during World War II, and flew as captain for KLM Airlines prior to joining the federal Department of Transport as Chief Executive Pilot and as the first Director, Aviation Safety Bureau. He lives in Ottawa.

THE FORTIES

'41 Janet (Morrissey) Lee was presented with a Badge of Honour for Devoted Service from the British Red Cross West Yorkshire County Branch on June 18 in Leeds, England. She is living in Wakefield, West Yorkshire.

'42 Godfrey G. Howard came all the way from Lake Winnepesaukee to attend the Montreal reunion. Says he is "still married to the same woman", is retired and is consulting in finance and investments. Godfrey's name appears twice on the panels of Ross Hall for the Governor General's medal and a first-class honours junior matric.

'42 Tom Patton is a C.A. and a teacher at John Abbott. He "still flies those model airplanes" and remembers when he launched them from the top of School House onto the football field. Today's planes are radio-controlled. He is still skiing and looking forward to a lifetime pass on Jay Peak next winter!

'44 Toby Coghill is Headmaster of Aberlour House School in Banffshire, Scotland. Sir Toby, or T.C. as he is known to his colleagues, was "discovered" to be a BCS Old Boy by Robert Common before he went to the Round Square Conference at Gordonstoun two years ago. As a result, Robert turned up armed with photocopies of Toby's BCS reports and his team photographs! Indirectly resulting from that happy contact was the opportunity for Susan Mitchell ('83) to work as a member of the staff at Aberlour House for this school year.

'47 Audrey (Robinson) Shaw was married in October to Philip Crane and they are living in Sarasota, Florida.

'48 Watson Ogilvie is Venturer Planning Manager for the Ontario Council, Boy Scouts of Canada. He was Co-Chairman of the first Youth Conference ever held jointly by the Boy Scouts and Girl Guides of Canada, a 10-day conference held this summer in St. John's Newfoundland for Venturers, Rangers and Pathfinders from across Canada. Chief Justice Noel Goodridge ('48) Administrator of the Province, hosted a reception for Conference participants at Government House.

'48 Tim Ballantine is now actively involved in pastoral counselling in the County Hospital and the surrounding New York area.

'48 "Harky" Smith was the subject of a letter written by his Uncle Guy Carrington Smith ('25) to Brad Mitchell: "After being the Admin. Officer at RMC, where he was considered as one of the most efficient to ever hold that post, he was promoted to full Colonel. Commandant of the School of Administration and Logistics. After 6 months "his" school was rated the most improved in the forces in 1986. Moreover he was rated in the top five percent of all the colonels in the Cdn. Army "Harky's grandfather, father, great uncles, uncles and sister are all Alumni.

'48 Tom Price and the Queen Mother were photographed by Perry Beaton of The Record this summer at the Inspection of the Black Watch Regiment in Montreal. Her Royal Highness is Colonel-in-Chief of the Regiment and Tom is Honorary Colonel.

THE FIFTIES

'50 Susan (Harvey) Patten, who is Provincial Commissioner for Newfoundland, Girl Guides of Canada, represented Canada at a meeting of the World Association of Girl Guides and Scouts held this summer in Kenya. She later attended the Youth Conference for Venturers, Rangers and Pathfinders held in St. John's. Susan is a Director of the Bank of Canada and a member of the Economic Council of Canada.

'50 Cinnie (Hands) Lewis wrote to Sally (Sharwood) Drummond ('51) about Mlle: "I always remember her as having been such a breath of fresh air when she swept into the classroom with her bubbly personality. I'm afraid after 18 years in the West and very little practise my francais is a disaster."

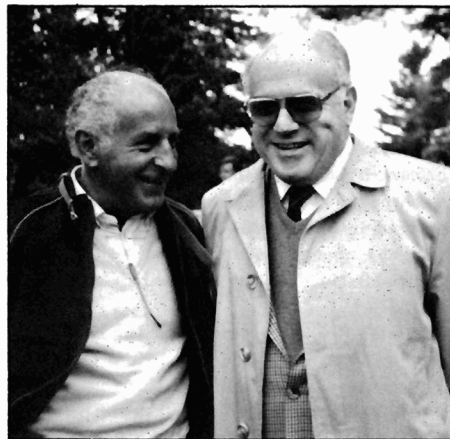

'50 Tim Porteous and his wife Bea Donald have announced the birth of their son Nicholas William de Lobiniere on May 29th, in Montreal.

'50 Nims (Smith) Abbott wrote to thank Brad Mitchell for sending a copy of the photo of her husband Tony ('49) and Mike McCulloch ('51) in their roles in the '46 production of "The Pirates". She adds: "We hope to both be back in Montreal in September so perhaps we'll see you at BCS."

'50 Deirdre (Molson) Stevenson wrote to Sally Drummond about Mam'selle Caiteux: "She was such a loving and giving person, creating sunshine and laughter wherever she went. We are fortunate to have known her."

'50 Val (Meyer) Heidell, in a note to Sally Drummond about Mlle Caiteux, wrote: "I started to giggle about "Ramassey tous qu'il y a par terre", and thought about what a top-notch teacher Mlle was. To her I attribute my love for the French language and my continuing interest in keeping it up as best I can. I shall never ever forget Mam'selle. She had a marvellous sense of humour to go along with her talent for teaching, and I always looked forward to her classes."

'51 Richie Setlakwe and Renaud Scheib ('50) were photographed at last spring's Cadet Inspection.

'51 Pam Stewart, has been appointed Director of the Centre for Continuing Education at McGill University. She was also recently elected a fellow of the Royal Society of Canada, for international recognition of her studies of Italian literature in the Middle Ages and the Renaissance. Her books and articles, written in Italian, English and French, have been published in Italy, Canada and the U.S.

'51 Hector Blejer visited BCS on August 11th with Andrea (Rutherford) Burgess ('52) and her husband and were given a tour of the School by Kim Laliberte. They had a great time reminiscing and Hector absolutely had to see the tunnel! He regaled his audience with schoolboy stories and thoroughly enjoyed looking through the Archives.

'51 Sally (Sharwood) Drummond is hereby recognized by all in the BCS Development Office for her enthusiasm and tremendous efforts to research the whereabouts of missing Compton Old Girls. In fact, we hear she has been known to turn up in supermarkets with her list of "the missing" in the hopes of accosting friends in the line-ups to ask, "Do you know where --- lives now?" Thanks, Sally, from all of us!

'52 Cynthia (Molson) Baxter responded to the memorial for Mlle by writing: "The notice brought back so many memories - mostly very happy - like Mademoiselle putting the radio, with the Stanley Cup playoff broadcast on, in her open window, so if we listened hard we could follow the game! Wonderful woman!"

'52 Jim Winder BCS Archivist, spent the summer assisting the Lennoxville-Ascot Historical and Museum Society with a survey of heritage buildings in Lennoxville. He has also written a document analyzing the historical and architectural importance of the buildings in each of the designated sectors.

'52 Susan (Minnes) Paloschi, in a letter to Sally

Drummond, wrote: "It was late October when I was on a sketching trip in the Eastern Townships that I went to visit Gilly and Mlle. Other than Mlle. being in bed she looked so beautiful and carried on as if the thirty-five years since I had seen her had never passed. . . as a teacher, she was determined . . . and patient - an extremely lovely woman in all senses."

'53 Shirley Woods and his wife San attended the Ottawa Reunion and noted the number of alumni San can count as relatives - her father Bart Ogilvy, her uncles, Ian and Bill, her brother Michael, her sister Marg, her two cousins, Watson and Jackie, her husband Shirley!, and her daughter Penelope . . . nine family members representing three generations. Shirley's seventh and latest book "Her Excellency Jeanne Sauve" was published last fall by Macmillan in English and French, and the paperback version will be available this fall.
